

Indiana Newspapers

Use this database to find:

1. A specific issue of the South Bend Tribune.
2. Articles about a topic in the South Bend Tribune or other Indiana Newspapers.

How to get there:

- Go to SJCPCL's website (<http://www.libraryforlife.org/>)
- Click on Research Resources
- Click on Newspapers
- If you are:
 - Inside the library: clicking on Indiana Newspapers takes you right into the database
 - Outside the library: you must enter your library card number to get into Indiana Newspapers

To search the South Bend Tribune:

- Click on the tab at the top that says Publications.

- Click on South Bend Tribune.

South Bend Tribune; South Bend, Ind. Full Text: 1991 - current

- If you know the date, you can browse the issue by clicking the date.
- If you want to search by topic, click on search within publication.

South Bend Tribune; South Bend, Ind.

Full text coverage: Dec 26, 1991 - current

To do a basic search:

- Click inside the text box and enter your search terms.
(Example: Morris Performing Arts Center Care Bears)

The results of the search will appear on a new screen. Click on the title to view the full text article. To view a summary of the article, click Abstract (if available). The article citation (author, newspaper, location, date, pages) will appear below the title.

Indiana Newspapers answers questions like:

1. Can I see an article about the Native American art museum in Indianapolis?
2. My grandmother was in the newspaper sometime this summer. Can I find the article?